Reference: P-2010-00525

Dear Mr. Conrad:

The office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received your 26 March 2010 letter requesting information pertaining to you. We processed your request under the Privacy Act and the Freedom of Information Act. We assigned your request the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

We searched for CIA-originated responsive records that might reflect an open or otherwise acknowledged Agency affiliation existing through 2 April 2010, the date we received and accepted your request. We were unable to locate any such information or records.

With respect to responsive records that would reveal a classified connection to the CIA, in accordance with section 3.6(a) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, the CIA can neither confirm nor deny the existence or nonexistence of records responsive to your request. The fact of the existence or nonexistence of requested records is currently and properly classified and relates to CIA intelligence sources and methods information that is protected from disclosure by section 6 of the CIA Act of 1949, as amended. Therefore, you may consider this portion of the response a denial of your request pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3), and PA exemptions (j)(1) and (k)(1). I have enclosed an explanation of these exemptions for your reference and retention.

You have the right to appeal this response within 45 days of the date of this letter. You may address your appeal to the Agency Release Panel, in my care. Please explain the basis of your appeal.

We appreciate your patience while we were processing this request.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Delores M. Nelson".

Delores M. Nelson
Information and Privacy Coordinator
